RECOMMENDED BOOK FOR LENTEN READING TRADITION

FR. ANDREW SHERMAN recommends the book The Jesus Creed, by Scot McKnight for this season of reflection and self-examination. It complements our daily discipline of prayer and scripture. This book focuses on Jesus’ commandment, which McKnight calls his “creed,” to love God and to love others.

Sun., March 21, Fr. Andrew will lead a conversation about this book at a coffee hour forum following the 10 AM Service, Harris Hall.

ANNOUNCEMENTS 28 FEBRUARY 2010

TODAY—Dr. Wissink’s class at 9 a.m. will begin a quick trip through entire Bible. However, there will be a slight interruption in this series next Sunday for a special lecture on “Olympic Connections.” Do you know that there is a connection between a king mentioned in the Bible and the marathon? Did you know that the man who condemned Peter and Paul was a participant in the Olympics? OR— that a member of Fr. Wissink’s church was a torchbearer in one of the past Olympics? Come after the 8 AM Service for this series and have some fun.

Lily Koppel's THE RED LEATHER DIARY

Enjoy an entertaining and informative book review by Marjorie Lyons followed by delicious tea and home-baked goodies.

A young New York Times writer unearths a diary that had been languishing in a steamer trunk in the Upper West Side of Manhattan for nearly half a century. An adventurous, intelligent, privileged young woman wrote a five year account during the 1930's.

Tickets: $25 — On sale in the courtyard after the 10 a.m. service—benefit of the ECW's many worthy causes.

UPDATE ON HAITI RECOVERY

Deacon Anita traveled to Bondeau on February 19th on one of the first flights into Port au Prince post-earthquake. Pere Kesner met her and went with her to Bondeau in a tap tap. The forty mile trip lasted over five hours and included changing two flat tires in the dark.

The Internet has come to Bondeau and Anita is connected to the world. Take a look at her daily postings are on both St. Gregory's and South Florida Haiti Project websites. The South Florida Haiti Project website is linked from St. Gregory's website. This week SFHP received a $10,000 check from All Saints Ft. Lauderdale for Haiti relief adding to our ability to help at Ste. Marie Madeleine at Bondeau. We send All Saints our sincere thanks for their response.

A vehicle for Bondeau remains a high priority. Next week, we will report on progress toward raising money for this.

To learn more about Ste. Marie Madeleine Church & School, go to the South Florida Haiti Project web site, www.southfloridahaitiproject.org. We continue to need your support.

PASTORAL PLEA: Anytime you are hospitalized or planning to have surgery, please contact the church office so that our clergy know you are ill. The clergy visit the hospital daily and like to keep informed of those needing prayers and/or visitation.

If you check in through EMERGENCY, be sure to say that you are EPISCOPALIAN, ST. GREGORY'S; not just CHRISTIAN.

FIFTY FROM THE HEART

There's still time to contribute to The Samaritan Counseling Ctrs before their donor celebratory breakfast, Friday, March 19, 7:30 a.m. The Centers are having to turn away families and children due to lack of resources. To meet the need they have established a Counseling Scholarship fund. FIFTY FROM THE HEART invites you to make a $50 contribution to the fund, to help provide counseling to these families. Checks can be made to the Samaritan Counseling Center and put in the plate on Sunday or dropped-off in the Church Office for Sarah Brindamour.
