NATIONAL DAY of PRAYER

Thursday, May 6, 2010

"If my people, who are called by my name, will humble themselves and pray and seek my face and turn from their wicked ways, then I will hear from heaven and will forgive their sin and will heal their land." Chronicles

▶MEMOIR WRITING CLASS Cont'd: Thurs. May 6, 10-12 noon, Justine Kuntz will continue a four-week writing class on Thursdays, Conference Rm, Harris Hall. No experience needed. Information? Call 561-994-0495 or e-mail

INDIAN POT LUCK SUPPER

Sunday, May 30, 5 PM, Harris Hall

Calling all lovers of Indian food, those who crave the bold and the spicy! After hearing from quite a few folks about their love of Indian cuisine, the Sherman Family and the Hawkins Family decided to host a pot luck featuring favorite Indian dishes. Can't cook curry? No worries! Whatever you bring is welcome, whether it's home-cooked or store-bought.

There are two Indian grocery stores in town that offer pre-prepared dishes as well as all the ingredients for the intrepid chefs among us. Local grocery stores (Publix, Fresh Market, and Whole Foods) offer ready-made items such as nan (flat Indian bread), curry sauces (just add veggies or meat) and plenty of spices. So, prep your taste buds and join us for a wonderful evening of a taste of India. For more information, please speak with Anita Sherman (561-395-1199) or Betsy Hawkins.
