TASTE OF INDIA POT LUCK

Sunday, May 30, 5 PM Harris Hall

Calling all lovers of Indian food, those who crave the bold and the spicy! After hearing from quite a few folks about their love of Indian cuisine, the Sherman Family and the Hawkins Family decided to host a pot luck featuring favorite Indian dishes next Sunday. Can't cook curry? No worries! Whatever you bring is welcome, whether it's home-cooked or store-bought. A sign-up sheet is in Harris Hall.

There are two Indian grocery stores in town that offer pre-prepared dishes as well as all the ingredients for the intrepid chefs among us. Local grocery stores (Publix, Fresh Market, and Whole Foods) offer ready-made items such as nan (flat Indian bread), curry sauces (just add veggies or meat) and plenty of spices. So, prep your taste buds and join us for a wonderful evening with a taste of India. For more information, please speak with Anita Sherman (561-395-1199) or Betsy Haw-
